THE LOCAL GOVERNMENT BOARD FOR IRELAND.

LARNE WATERWORKS.

PROVISIONAL ORDER.

WHEREAS the Town Commissioners of the town of Larne in the county of Antrim acting under the Towns Improvement (Ireland) Act 1854 have been constituted an urban sanitary authority and the said town has been constituted an urban sanitary district by the Larne Provisional Order 1892 confirmed by the Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Order (No. 1) Act 1892 and the said urban sanitary authority (herein-after called the sanitary authority) are incorporated by the Public Health (Ireland) Amendment Act 1879 :

And whereas by the Larne Waterworks Provisional Order 1894 confirmed by the Local Government Board (Ireland) Provisional Order Confirmation (No. 10) Act 1894 the sanitary authority were empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of lands otherwise than by agreement with reference to certain lands and premises required for the purpose of constructing waterworks for the town and it was ordered that the compulsory powers thereby given should not be exercised after the expiration of three years from the confirmation of the order :

And whereas the sanitary authority have presented a petition to the Local Government Board for Ireland (herein-after called the Local Government Board) stating that the sanitary authority have never in any way exercised any of the compulsory powers of purchase conferred by the said Act of 1894 and have not constructed or commenced to construct any part of the works for which the said powers were acquired and that nothing had been done or happened under the said order to affect or prejudice the estate or rights of any of the persons owning or interested in any of the lands aforesaid or to give or vest in any such person any right against the sanitary authority in respect of anything contained in the said Order and further stating that in consequence of further and fuller inquiry and information acquired since obtaining the said provisional order the sanitary authority had ascertained that the execution of the scheme for which the said Order was obtained would greatly exceed the estimated amount and the amount which in the opinion of the sanitary authority should be expended by them for such purposes and that the provisions therein contained for securing a supply of water to owners and occupiers whose supply of water might be taken or injuriously affected by the said waterworks would probably render the supply of water obtainable from the waterworks then proposed inadequate and that the sanitary authority had determined to abandon the construction of the said waterworks and construct in lieu thereof certain other works therein described and praying that they may be allowed to abandon the works for which the Provisional Order of 1894 was granted and that they may be empowered to put in force the powers of the Lands Clauses Acts with respect to the purchase and taking of land otherwise than by agreement with reference to certain lands and premises required for the purposes of constructing the waterworks now proposed to be executed and thereby providing a supply of water for the said town,

And whereas the sanitary authority have deposited at the office of the Local Government Board in Dublin plans and a book of reference (herein-after called the deposited plans and book of reference) showing the lands and other premises required for the purposes of the waterworks now proposed to be executed and all advertisements and notices required by the Public Health (Ireland) Act 1878 having been previously published served and given the Local Government Board have caused a local inquiry to be made as to the propriety of assenting to the prayer of the said petition and it appears to the Local Government Board to be proper to make this Order with respect to the matters aforesaid:
